Dear Jeffrey Martins:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act (FOIA/PA) request received in this office June 15, 2012 regarding [REDACTED]

We have completed the review of all documents and have identified 200 pages that are responsive to your request. Enclosed are 169 pages released in their entirety, and 9 pages released in part. We are withholding 15 pages in full. In our review of these pages, we have determined that they contain no reasonably segregable portion(s) of non-exempt information. Additionally, we have referred 2 pages in their entirety to Department of State and 5 pages to United States Visit for their direct response to you. We have reviewed and have determined to release all information except those portions that are exempt pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(5), (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and (b)(7)(E) of the FOIA.

Exemption (b)(5) provides protection for inter-agency or intra-agency memoranda or letters, which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld under this exemption may consist of documents containing pre-decisional information, documents or other memoranda prepared in contemplation of litigation, or confidential communications between attorney and client.

Exemption (b)(6) permits the government to withhold all information about individuals in personnel, medical and similar files where the disclosure of such information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld may consist of birth certificates, naturalization certificates, drivers' licenses, social security numbers, home addresses, dates of birth, or various other documents and/or information belonging to a third party that are considered personal.

Exemption (b)(7)(C) provides protection for personal information in law enforcement records, which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. We have withheld information relating to third-party individuals. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld could consist of names, addresses, identification numbers, telephone numbers, fax numbers, or various other documents that are considered personal.

Exemption (b)(7)(E) provides protection for records or information for law enforcement purposes which would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. The types of documents and/or information we have withheld could consist of law enforcement systems checks, manuals, checkpoint locations, surveillance techniques, and various other documents.

As a matter of administrative discretion, we are releasing computer codes found on system screen prints previously withheld under exemption b(2). There may be additional documents that contain discretionary releases of exempt information. We will identify discretionary releases within the record. These discretionary releases do not waive our ability to invoke applicable FOIA exemptions for similar or related information in the future.

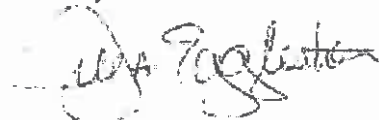

The enclosed record consists of the best reproducible copies available. Certain pages may contain marks that appear to be blacked-out information. Such black marks would have been present prior to our receipt of the file and are not information we have withheld under the provisions of the FOIA or PA.

If you wish to appeal this determination, you may write to the USCIS FOIA/PA Appeals Office, 150 Space Center Loop, Suite 500, Lee's Summit, MO 64064-2139, within 60 days of the date of this letter. Both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

The National Records Center does not process petitions, applications or any other type of benefit under the Immigration and Nationality Act. If you have questions or wish to submit documentation relating to a matter pending with the bureau, you must address these issues with your nearest District Office.

All FOIA/PA related requests, including address changes, must be submitted in writing and be signed by the requester. Please include the NRC number listed above on all correspondence with this office. Requests may be mailed to the FOIA/PA Officer at the PO Box listed at the top of the letterhead, or sent by fax to 816-350-5785. You may also submit FOIA/PA related requests to our e-mail address at uscis.foia@uscis.dhs.gov.

Sincerely,

Jill A. Eggleston
Director, FOIA Operations

To Whom It May Concern:

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please consider this letter as an appeal of the determination to withhold information from the Freedom of Information Act request filed with the National Record Center regarding [REDACTED] NRC2012055907.

In the July 3, 2012, response to the Freedom of Information Act request, information regarding [REDACTED] was improperly withheld. There was a large amount of information inappropriately blocked out or withheld altogether

Most significantly, [REDACTED] was interviewed at the San Francisco Asylum Office on or about May 9, 2012. During this interview a written or typed record of the questions and answers was created. These notes represent the only record of the sworn testimony of [REDACTED] and do not fall under any exception listed in the Freedom of Information Act, U.S.C. 552 and related provisions.

According to the response, it appears that this information is being withheld under Freedom of Information Act, U.S.C. 552(b)(5). The sworn testimony of [REDACTED] does not constitute interagency memorandum or letters or other internal agency information nor does it constitute predecisional information, documents made in contemplation of litigation, or confidential communication between attorney and client.

Sworn statements taken by immigration officials in all contexts are available through Freedom of Information Act requests and the officer's written records of [REDACTED] interview is no different and should have been provided.

Please reconsider the decision to withhold this information and provide it to [REDACTED] attorney, Jeffrey Martins, at the above listed address. Providing this information in a timely manner will help avoid any additional legal action.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me using any of the information listed at the top of this letter.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Martins, Esq.

Dear Mr. Martins:

Re: NRC2012055907

You appealed the action of the National Records Center regarding your request for access to records pertaining to [REDACTED] dated June 15, 2012. The original determination of the National Records Center was to withhold 9 pages in part and 15 in full.

After careful consideration of your appeal, and as a result of discussions with the National Records Center, we have decided to release 2 additional pages to you, copies of which are enclosed. We are releasing these pages in part. We have redacted information pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §§ 552 (b)(6) and (b)(7)(E).

On the remaining pages, we found that the National Records Center properly withheld certain information that is protected from disclosure. We have determined that this information is not appropriate for discretionary release.

If you are dissatisfied with our action on your appeal, you may seek judicial review in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B). The Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) also mediates disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. The OGIS does not have the authority to handle requests made under the Privacy Act of 1974. If you wish to contact OGIS, you may email them at ogis@nara.gov or call 1-877-684-6448.
